Judges' Profiles

Joan Greenwald

Joan has been playing agility for over 10 years with Newfoundlands and Border Collies, and before that obedience for longer than she wants to admit. She has been an AKC agility judge since 2000, and is also a AKC Rally Obedience judge. In her "real" life she is a biologist who left the field to open a boarding kennel and stable where she boards and grooms dogs, and runs obedience and agility classes five nights a week. At the stable she does trail rides and riding lessons.

Billie McLean

I started my agility career in 1994. I have competed with 2 large, 2 medium and 2 small dogs. Four have achieved their AtchC titles in the AAC organization. I am currently working on our AG.MX with my one toller and Intermediate with my younger one. I became an AAC agility judge in 2002. I upgraded to a Master AAC judge in 2005. I have competed at the AAC Nationals since the beginning in 2001 with my miniature schnauzer Zoe. We have won the National title in the 6" veterans division 3 times. I enjoy competing in and judging agility as well as meeting people from all over our country who share the same enthusiasm for agility as I do.

HELP WANTED

Without the help from volunteers, we could not host these trials. We cannot do it alone! We need your help to make our trial a success. A volunteer raffle will be held at the end of each day. Don't be afraid to try something new. We'll be happy to teach you how to do your job.

Dogs entering the Selected Class must progress through the various levels beginning with the Novice level. Excellent A is for dogs that have acquired the Intermediate title, but have not yet earned the Agility Excellent title in either Standard or JWW.
